DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 18 October 2002 has been entered.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 31, 37, 40, 46, and 48 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form. Claims 31, 37, 40, 46, and 48 are drawn to a method step for the operation of a device. The claimed invention, however, is not drawn to a method of operation but rather, is drawn to an apparatus per se. The recited method of operation has not been found to impart any further material limitation to the claimed device and as such it has not been found to further limit the claimed invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102/103

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) do not apply to the examination of this application as the application being examined was not (1) filed on or after November 29, 2000, or (2) voluntarily published under 35 U.S.C. 122(b). Therefore, this application is examined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 30-32, 36-41, and 45-48 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wohlstadter et al.

6. Claims 30-32, 36-41, and 45-48 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Wohlstadter et al.

7. Wohlstadter et al., teach at length a plethora of assay formats wherein a binding relationship is determined to have occurred by causing to electrochemiluminescent radiation to be emitted. Columns 49 and 59 disclose that the assay could be one where hybridization between a probe and a target nucleic acid occurs. Column 49 discloses that the ECL label could be added to the hybridized nucleic acid subsequent to the binding step. The aspect of having the nucleic acids arranged in the shape of an array is disclosed at column 60 and that the signal could be detected via a pickup device such as a CCD camera. The aspect of having one of the electrode plates transparent is disclosed at column 65.

8. Wohlstadter et al., disclose a variety of formats and shapes that the multitudinous assays may assume. Accordingly, the aspect of having an electrode in the form of a plate or comb is fairly taught, and at the very least rendered an obvious design choice.

9. For the above reasons, and in the absence of convincing evidence to the contrary, the disclosure of Wohlstadter et al., fairly teaches the claimed apparatus.
